

XpertBI

FASTER. CHEAPER. SMARTER.

Technical Professional Course and Training

The Xpert BI technical professional is a course and certification available to BI builders' partners and customers. The course is mandatory for every consulting, professional and premier partner to ensure a good quality of project implementations and that Xpert BI is used efficiently. The course is 2 sessions, 4 hours each. It includes an extended trial license that the participants can use on the course and for internal testing and development.

Pre-requisites:	Knowledge of BI and data warehouse development Preferable with knowledge of the SQL server BI stack
Tools:	PC/laptop with SQL server 2008R2 or higher installed or access to a server with this installation.
Aimed for:	BI and data warehouse developers/professionals/architects/technicians
Content Day 1:	A brief discussion of market trends and common challenges and how Xpert BI fits into a changing environment. Xpert BI Extraction including: source metadata handling, destination metadata handling and data extraction with surrogate primary and foreign keys. Incremental loads, Tracking and Changing attributes using functions, advanced metadata handling. Xpert BI Collection basics Installation of Xpert BI and practical training
Content Day 2:	Q&A and summary from Day1 Xpert BI Transformation including: introduction to new data transformation methodology, creating tables using Xpert BI configuration, understanding dependencies. Incremental data loads in Transformation, using stored procedures, solution documentation, analyzing solution performance and much more.
	The online Xpert BI Certification Test ☺
Course Tutor:	Anja Loug Helland, BI Professional and Head of Project and Partner Development, BI Builders